

I am completely against the proposed relaxation of ownership rules for newspaper and broadcasting outlets. The proposed rules will result in most broadcast outlets being owned by a few corporate conglomerates -- reducing the public's access to a wider range of viewpoints. If anything, I want the rules to be expanded to bring back the regional ownership of media outlets.

Regards,

Ray Hixon